Abstract Submission Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in submitting your paper(s) for the International Conference on Media and Communication (ICMAC) 2023! We request you to kindly note the following instructions regarding the formatting of the abstract of your paper/poster to be submitted for the ICMAC 2023.

1. Abstract Formatting

- The abstract must be submitted in the English language.
- Please format the abstract in double space in TIMES NEW ROMAN, 12 pts.
- The abstract should be within 300-500 words max. (excluding the author(s) details).

2. Author(s) information

- Below the paper title, please mention the names of the author and co-authors and their main affiliation, while also clearly identifying the corresponding author with an asterisk (*) who will be the primary point of contact.
- Please provide a brief bio note of the author and co-authors (in max. 50 words each) after the abstract, giving mainly name(s), author affiliations, publications, and contact details)

3. Submission

- You can submit a maximum of two research papers or posters in any two of the four conference tracks, but not more than one paper in a particular track.

4. Contents of an abstract:

- The abstract document should capture the title of the proposed paper, authorship, abstract and at least five relevant keywords.
- For the body of the abstract, there are no specific requirements. But it should briefly capture the essence of the paper including introduction, methodology, discussion, conclusion and references (or other information as per the requirement of your research paper).

- Please refrain from listing applied artificial intelligence (AI) programs, Large Language Models (LLMs) or natural language processing programs such as ChatGPT as co-author.
- Please do declare, if may, the use of applied artificial intelligence (AI) programs, Large Language Models (LLMs) or natural language processing programs such as ChatGPT in your paper(s).

We look forward to having your valuable research contribution to the conference. In case you have any queries, please do reach out to us at icmac2023@simc.edu

Thanking you!
